

Wine and Gourmet Grocery Sales Staff

Part-Time/ Weekends

Do you love trying new wine, searching for the perfect food pairing, or sharing your favorite Belgian beer?

Then we want you!

We are looking to add to our growing team of wine, beer, and food enthusiasts. Team members are responsible for providing excellent customer service - with an emphasis on warm hospitality – answering product questions, conducting tastings, maintaining inventory, and other general shop duties.

Formal wine education/ certification and knowledge of beer or gourmet foods is a plus, but we look for attitude, personality, and culture fit.

Our position is part-time and requires weekend availability. Candidates should be able to lift 50lbs, be comfortable standing/ being on their feet, and be 19 or older. We offer a living hourly wage, employee discount, continued product training, and chance to try lots of new wines!

Springhouse Sundries is a locally owned gourmet grocery shop that seeks to provide a fun, laid back, and positive work environment. Located in Charlottesville's new Dairy Market, we feature a curated selection of wine and specialty beer, as well as a variety of meats, cheeses, and gourmet food items with an emphasis on locally sourced products.

If you are excited about the opportunity to join our merry band of wine and food fanatics, then please respond to info@springhousesundries.com with a resume and availability for an interview.
